The painful pieces of Mary's life help us to get through our own rough edged moments. We see how she too questioned what was confusing and unclear, how she needed others to be with her in her pain; how she reflected on her experiences in order to find meaning. We also see how her faith sustained her, and how her son gave her the strength to endure. We discover that we are not alone in what is most difficult for us. Join ASC Associate Director, Janet Trahan as she facilitates this prayer and study during Lent
