"A biblical reflection on Pope Francis' vision for the church called to embody mercy and create a culture of encounter."

All are invited to the 2017 Roppolo Memorial Workshop presented by Sr. Barbara Reid, O.P.

Author and Vice President, Academic Dean and Professor of New Testament Studies at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, Illinois. The workshop will call participants to imagine what our church would look like if we fully implemented the vision of Pope Francis.

The Workshop is free and open to the public. Parking is available. Light refreshments provided.

For more information call (504) 861-6281 or email mauraodonovan74@gmail.com.

Please preregister for the workshop at <http://gps.loyno.edu/lim/roppolo>.

"The memorial fund, established by Msgr. Douglas Doussan, Matthew Rousso and Father Douglas Brougher, will honor the self-sacrificing and generous way in which Father Roppolo ministered to the sick, the poor and exercised leadership as pastor and in other prominent positions in the local church.....Friends and colleagues said one of the hallmarks of Father Roppolo's priesthood was his vision of a more inclusive church, as called for by the Second Vatican Council."

- Clarion Herald, June 5, 2014 upon the establishment of the memorial endowment.
