

PARENTS' PLEDGE

“And those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.” Daniel 12:3b

Lord, we pledge to do our best to instruct
Your children, relying on Your grace.

We pledge to be faithful to the promise we made at our children’s Baptisms to be their first and most important teachers in the ways of the Faith.

We pledge to totally surrender to You, Lord, and to prayerfully seek You for our children and our home.

We pledge to be obedient to You, Lord. We pledge to strive to make our home a peaceful reflection of You. Amen.

PRAYER OF A FAMILY

God of goodness and mercy, we commend our family, our household, and all that belongs to us, to Your fatherly protection. We entrust all to Your love and keeping. Fill our home with Your blessings. Above all else, keep us far from sin. Help each one of us to keep Your holy laws, to love You sincerely, and to imitate Your example, the example of Mary, and that of the saints whose intercession we seek. Lord, preserve our home from all evil. May we be resigned to Your holy will, even when crosses and sorrow come to us. Give us the grace to live in perfect harmony and love toward each other and our neighbor. Grant that each one of us may deserve, by a holy life, the comfort of Your sacraments at the hour of our death. Bless our homes, God the Father Who created us, God the Son Who suffered for us on the cross, and God the Holy Spirit, Who fills our hearts with inspiration.

We pray ...

... that all members of our family may lead lives pleasing to God. Lord, have mercy.

... that our home may be truly holy, happy, and peaceful, and that there be no room for discord. Lord, have mercy.

... that our home may be truly Catholic, and that Christ may rule as its head. Lord, have mercy.
